DDS
E-COMMERCE

Logistics 101

@reallygreatsite

CONTENT

Login Page

Description Page

Payment Page

End Page

About the website

A webpage designed for e-commerce to showcase 3 products.
Wired headphone
Neckband
TWS earphone
The products with image, price, title and description are displayed in the webpage

Login Page

Login page serves as the entry point for users to access the system or application. Front page of the website designed with aesthetic images and fonts.
The login page typically consist of fields for users to enter their credentials, which commonly include a username or email and a password.

Description Page

Detailed Description about Wired Headphone, Neckband, TWS Earphone are displayed in this page.

Payment Page

This page briefly explains about Billing and Payment details of the customer which includes Customer's Address, city, Landmark, Phone number, ZIP code etc.....

And it finally displays the Order Summary which includes the total amount that the customer should pay for the respective product.

At last a Submit button is designed in order to complete the payment process.

End Page

This page summarizes the significant results throughout the payment process.

The Overall confirmation and order details of the customer including Shipping Information are displayed in this page.

Conclusion

This Software Requirements Specification outlines the features and requirements for the development of an e-commerce page to showcase wired headphones, neckbands, and TWS earphones. The implementation should adhere to the specified functional and non-functional requirements.